INFORMATION AND MANAGEMENT SUPPORT STAFF
WEEKLY REPORT FOR PERIOD ENDING 04 APRIL 1984

1. Progress Report on Tasks Assigned by the DCI/DDCI:

No tasks assigned during this reporting period.

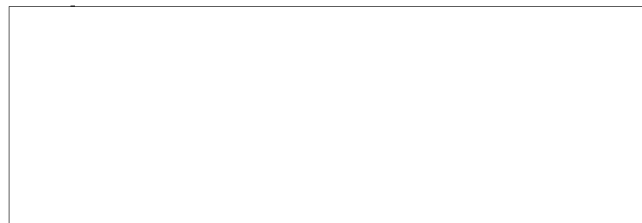

2. Items or Events of Major Interest that have Occurred During the Preceding Week:

a. Item of Interest - Wedding bells chimed and the ties that bind P&PD and IMSS became even stronger as Ms. [redacted] (OL/P&PD) became the wife of [redacted] (OL/IMSS) on Saturday, 31 March 1984. Much happiness to [redacted]

b. LIMS - The meetings between representatives from Booz-Allen & Hamilton (BAH), the LIMS developer, and Supply Management Branch (SMB) personnel have continued. This dialogue has helped to enlighten BAH on the minute details of how we currently process requests. C/SMB conducted a two hour session during which numerous requisitions were reviewed in detail. In addition, C/SMB has provided additional insight to BAH representatives on the subject of stock allocations.

c. Regulations - The following regulations were written, reviewed commented upon, concurred in, or published during the past week:

[redacted] Delegation of Authority for Operating Officials to make Small Purchases - This proposed HN was sent to Regulations Control Division, OIS, last week with a request to expedite it. It is being circulated throughout the Agency for concurrence, and it is expected that it should be published soon.
